

MidAmerica Healthcare Venture Forum: Presenting Companies Released

Madison, WI, September 29 2009: Ratio, Inc. has been chosen as a presenting company at the MidAmerica Healthcare Venture Forum held in Madison, WI from November 11 - 12th. This forum affords direct exposure to the Mid-America Healthcare Investors Network (MHIN) which represents some 40+ venture capital firms from 14 states. Presenting companies were chosen based on a submitted two-page executive summary.

“This is a great opportunity for increased exposure in front of a broad range of investors. Ratio is looking to both close out the current round and connect with future investors,” comments Ben Moga, Director of Ratio, Inc.

Having established a partnership with FluGen, Inc. for the field of influenza vaccine products, Ratio is working to establish a product pipeline for indications which benefit from the unique cost-performance advantage provided by Ratio’s drug delivery technology.
